FAMILY CONVERSATIONS

The Ten Days (including Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur) are a good time for having thoughtful one-on-one conversations or a sit-down talk as a whole family. You can use these prompts to guide you. Want to learn more? See page 35.

Tear out these pages for easy use, and download more copies at PJLIBRARY.ORG/GROW

1

THINK ABOUT YOUR ACTIONS.

MAKING MYSELF (EVEN) BETTER

What things have I done this past year that I’m proud of?

__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________

What can I do this new year that I’ll be proud of?

__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________

How can I get started?

__________________________________________________________________
__________________________________________________________________
MAKING FAMILY AND FRIENDSHIPS STRONGER

What are some kind things we’ve done for each other this past year?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

How have we disrespected or hurt each other this past year? Now is the time to apologize for those acts and to offer each other forgiveness.

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________

What’s the best way to keep these things from happening again?

________________________________________________________________________

________________________________________________________________________
FAMILY GOALS

When do we feel most connected as a family? When is it harder to get along?

How can we support each other better?

What are some ideas for making family time more special in the new year?

EXAMPLES

No phones or gossip (lashon hara) at the dinner table. Sharing Friday night (Shabbat) dinner together. Eating healthier food or spending more time outdoors together.
AS A FAMILY, DISCUSS WAYS TO REACH OUT TO OTHERS IN YOUR NEIGHBORHOOD, YOUR COMMUNITY, AND THE WORLD.

FIXING THE WORLD (tikkun olam in Hebrew)

Do we have a neighbor who lives alone or friends who are going through a difficult time? What can we do to help them?

Are there people in our community who need food, clothes, or shelter? Are there people who aren’t treated fairly? What are some ways we can support them?

What are our tikkun olam goals (helping animals, helping the environment, visiting the elderly, etc.) and what project ideas can we think up?

If your family has a tzedakah box for collecting money for charitable donations, this is a good time of year to talk about where to give the money when the box gets full.