Judging everyone favorably
Dan lechaf z’chut

Friendship
Yedidut

Snow in Jerusalem
By Deborah da Costa Illustrated by Cornelius Van Wright & Ying-Hwa Hu
Published by Albert Whitman & Company

Hebrew vocabulary:
friendship, greetings,
Jerusalem,
peace, cats and other pets

Bracha for seeing a friend - Shehecheyanu glad to see them) or Mechayei ha-meitim (happy they are healthy)

Stories of friendship in the Tanach: David and Jonathan, Ruth and Naomi

Yom Kippur=Day of
judgement;
apologizing to friends

Shuk/markplace -
Fairness in business

Israel -
Jerusalem,
neighborhoods

The many languages
spoken and cultures
in Israel

Mezuzah, (opening)
doorways

Israeli art and artists;
perspectives in
beauty and culture

Shmita -
Sharing what is available

Sharing what is available

Shuk/marketplace -
Fairness in business

Shmita -
setting aside
preconceived ideas

Israel -
Jerusalem,
neighborhoods

The many languages
spoken and cultures
in Israel

Mezuzah,
(opening)
doorways

Israeli art and artists;
perspectives in
beauty and culture

Shmita -
setting aside
preconceived ideas

Israel -
Jerusalem,
neighborhoods

The many languages
spoken and cultures
in Israel

Mezuzah,
(opening)
doorways

Yom Kippur=Day of
judgement;
apologizing to friends

The many languages
spoken and cultures
in Israel

Mezuzah,
(opening)
doorways

Israeli art and artists;
perspectives in
beauty and culture

Shmita -
setting aside
preconceived ideas

Israel -
Jerusalem,
neighborhoods

The many languages
spoken and cultures
in Israel

Mezuzah,
(opening)
doorways

Israeli art and artists;
perspectives in
beauty and culture

Shmita -
setting aside
preconceived ideas