Jewish Ideas and Thought that Inspire Jewish Early Childhood Education

Teach a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not depart from it.	(Talmud)
My father planted for me and I plant for my children.	(Talmud)
A person reaches in three directions: inward, to oneself up, to God out, to others.  The miracle of life is that in truly reaching in any one direction, one embraces all three.  – Rebbe Levi Yitzchak of Berditchev
Everyone carries with them at least one and probably Many pieces to someone else's puzzle. Sometimes they know it. Sometimes they don't. And when you present your piece Which is worthless to you, To another, whether you know it or not, Whether they know it or not, You are a messenger from the Most High.  – Lawrence Kushner
Come and Learn: The voice of God spoke to each Israelite, that means to each and every person God's voice was heard and understood because the voice spoke to each individual according to that person's particular ability to hear and understand..to the elderly in keeping with their ability, to the young in keeping with their ability, to the little ones in keeping with their ability, and so on. (Midrash) Exodus Rabba 5:9
You are not obligated to complete the work, but neither are you free to desist from it  Rabbi Tarfun, Pirkei Avot (Chapter 2, Mishna 21).
Our goal should be to live life in radical amazement. ....get up in the morning and look at the world in a way that takes nothing for granted. Everything is phenomenal; everything is incredible; never treat life casually. To be spiritual is to be amazed.  Abraham Joshua Heschel
Ben Zoma says: Who is wise? The one who learns from everyone.  Who is strong? The ones who control themselves.  Who is rich? The ones who are happy with what they have.  Who is honored? The one who honors others. (Chap 4, Mishna 1)
Rabbi Meir says: Do not look at the jug, but what is in it... (Chap 4, Mishna 27)
Hillel says: If I am not for myself, who will be for me, and if I am only for myself, what am I? And if not now, when? (Chap 1, Mishna 14)
Yehoshua ben Perachya says: Make for yourself a teacher, and acquire for yourself a friend... ..and judge everyone favorably. (Chap 1, Mishna 6)
Shammai says: Say little and do much...  ... and greet everyone with a cheerful face. (Chap 1, Mishna 15)
Hillel says: Do not separate yourself from the community (Chap 2, Mishna 5)
Ben Bag Bag says: Turn it [the Torah] over and over, for everything is in it... (Chap 5, Mishna 26)
Ben Azzai used to say: Do not be scornful of any person... or any thing, for you have no person without his hour... and no thing without its place. (Chapter 4, Mishna 3)
(Daddy) said, 'All children must look after their own upbringing.' Parents can only give good advice or put them on the right paths, but the final forming of a person's character lies in their own hands. Anne Frank
