THE 10 DAYS OF RETURNING

FAMILY CONVERSATIONS

The Ten Days (including Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur) are a good time for having thoughtful one-on-one conversations or a sit-down talk as a whole family. You can use these prompts to guide you.

1. THINK ABOUT YOUR ACTIONS.

   MAKING MYSELF (EVEN) BETTER

   What things have I done this past year that I’m proud of?

   ____________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________

   What can I do this new year that I’ll be proud of?

   ____________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________
   ____________________________________________________

   How can I get started?

2

HAVE A ONE-ON-ONE CONVERSATION WITH A FAMILY MEMBER OR FRIEND.

MAKING FAMILY AND FRIENDSHIPS STRONGER

What are some kind things we’ve done for each other this past year?
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

How have we disrespected or hurt each other this past year? Now is the time to apologize for those acts and to offer each other forgiveness.
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

What’s the best way to keep these things from happening again?
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________

FAMILY GOALS

When do we feel most connected as a family? When is it harder to get along?

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

How can we support each other better?

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

What are some ideas for making family time more special in the new year?

____________________________________________________________________________

____________________________________________________________________________

EXAMPLES

No phones or gossip (lashon hara) at the dinner table. Sharing Friday night (Shabbat) dinner together. Eating healthier food or spending more time outdoors together.
FIXING THE WORLD (Tikkun olam in Hebrew)

Do we have a neighbor who lives alone or friends who are going through a difficult time? What can we do to help them?

______________________________

Are there people in our community who need food, clothes, or shelter? Are there people who aren’t treated fairly? What are some ways we can support them?

______________________________

______________________________

What are our tikkun olam goals (helping animals, helping the environment, visiting the elderly, etc.) and what project ideas can we think up?

Tip

If your family has a tzedakah box for collecting money for charitable donations, this is a good time of year to talk about where to give the money when the box gets full.
