

Maimonides' Ladder of Tzedakah

1. Help someone find a job or start a business.

2. Give when you don't know where it's going, and the recipient doesn't know who gave, such as through a community fund.

3. Give when you don't know who the money goes to, but the receiver knows who gave it.

4. Give when the receiver doesn't know who gave the gift, but you know who got it.

5. You give before you are asked.

6. You give when you are asked.

7. You only give a little, but you are nice about it.

8. You only give a little, and you do it grumpily.

Maimonides' Ladder of Tzedakah—without numbers for classroom challenge

Help someone find a job or start a business.	You give before you are asked.
Give when you don't know where it's going, and the recipient doesn't know who gave, such as through a community fund.	You give when you are asked.
Give when you don't know who the money goes to, but the receiver knows who gave it.	You only give a little, but you are nice about it.
Give when the receiver doesn't know who gave the gift, but you know who got it.	You only give a little, and you do it grumpily.