When evening and daytime were over on the sixth day of Creation, the sky and earth and everything that lives in them were complete. Then, on the seventh day, God ended all of that work by resting. God blessed the seventh day and made it special, because it was the day when God rested from all the work of creating.

Baruch ata Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha'olam, borei peri hagafen.

Dear God, Creator of our world, thank You for the delicious fruit that grows on vines.

If your seder is on Friday night, when Shabbat is starting, begin with:

When evening and daytime were over on the sixth day of Creation, the sky and earth and everything that lives in them were complete. Then, on the seventh day, God ended all of that work by resting. God blessed the seventh day and made it special, because it was the day when God rested from all the work of creating.

Baruch ata Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha'olam, borei peri hagafen.

Dear God, Creator of our world, thank You for the delicious fruit that grows on vines.

If your seder is on Saturday night, when Shabbat is ending, add:

Baruch ata Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha'olam, shehecheyanu vekiyemanu vehigi'anu lazeman hazeh.

Dear God, Creator of our world, thank You for keeping us alive so we can celebrate this important moment.

On the first night of Passover add:

Baruch ata Adonai, Eloheinu melech ha'olam, shehecheyanu vekiyemanu vehigi'anu lazeman hazeh.

Dear God, Creator of our world, thank You for giving us the gift of being Jewish and the rules and good deeds that help make us better people. With love You have given us holidays to be joyful. On this Festival of Matzah, we celebrate being free people. We remember how You took us out of the land of Egypt where we were slaves. Dear God, thank You for giving the Jewish people this special time to celebrate our freedom.

On the first night of Passover add:

Dear God, Creator of our world, You have given all the people in the world different ways of living and believing. Thank You for giving us the gift of being Jewish and the rules and good deeds that help make us better people. With love You have given us holidays to be joyful. On this Festival of Matzah, we celebrate being free people.

Sit down, lean back in freedom, and drink!
