

PJ Library is always on the lookout for board books that are engaging and stimulating and for picture books that tell rich and authentic stories. Please view the PJ Library Content Framework for the full scope of book topics PJ Library is interested in. Please read on for four high-interest and high-need areas:

1. BOARD BOOKS: PJ Library is actively seeking visually stimulating board books with engaging concepts and plots, and lyrical, playful prose ... that are also delicious to eat (kidding).
2. SEPHARDIC and MIZRAHI TALES: PJ Library is actively seeking stories about Sephardic and Mizrahi families, customs, and history, as well as Sephardic and Mizrahi folktales.
3. DIVERSE FAMILIES: PJ Library is actively seeking books that reflect today's Jewish families and practices. We are happy to consider submissions of Jewish manuscripts that reflect that diversity, in every way.
4. HUMOR: Everyone loves to laugh, and everyone loves to laugh together. PJ Library welcomes books for all ages that are funny and fun for both children and their parents. More LOL moments, please.
