

PJ Goes to School (PJGtS), a companion program to PJ Library[®], works with schools and educators across North America to bring Jewish values to life in your school community. PJGtS offers a holistic approach to family engagement and Jewish education, triggering conversations about Jewish values in schools in the same way PJ Library inspires dialogue in the home.

PJ GOESTO SCHOOL:

- Is a values-based Jewish education initiative using PJ Library books with advanced pedagogy
- Enhances the Jewish content of early childhood and complementary school classrooms
- Helps build relationships for shared values between families and schools
- Engages children, families, and staff in conversations about Jewish values
- Provides educators with opportunities for professional development
- Weaves Jewish values throughout each school's existing programs

BENEFITS OF PARTICIPATING IN PJGTS

- Monthly PJ Library books for enrolled 3-year-old and 4-year-old classrooms
- Yearly theme-based kit of books for enrolled complementary school classrooms
- Ongoing professional development, opportunities for national scholarships
- Resource guides for PJ Library books and other educational materials
- Subscription to monthly eNews

WE EXPECT YOU WILL:

- Participate in an online orientation
- Tell parents of an opportunity to join PJ Library
- Stimulate conversation and exploration around Jewish values
- Let us know how you use your books
- Complete yearly survey

